

History of Alaska.

By Brooks

1741 bering's second expedition from Siberia to the North Pacific finds alaska.
1742 Russian explorers and traders begin hunting sea otters north pacific for there pelts. 1761 Russian explorers on the mainland of alaska. 1853 russians fined coal and gold on the Kensington peninsulasula in south-central Alaska. 1867 Russia sells Alaska to the United States $7.2 million dollars. 1881 the Paris lode claim near Juneau is staked and by 1885 is the most productive Gold mine in Alaska 1900 a law calls for the Capital to be moved from Sitka to Juneau takes place in 1906.

1741 to 1900

In 1907 a presidential proclamation created the Tongva National Forest. This is the largest national forest in America.

In 1913 the first Alaska territorial legislature assembled

The end